Cooks

The cafeteria, in charge of Mrs. Maguire, gave the students of Batesville High School many fine meals this year. The cafeteria was started in 1950 and has made it possible for students to enjoy a warm lunch at noon hour and has been a "hit" with students ever since. Shown in the kitchen are: Mrs. Maguire (seated), Alvine Klostermeyer (drying dishes), Ida Dieckman (next to stove), and Norma Klostermeyer (with water pitcher).

Janitors

Few realize the extensive duties of the school maintenance men, Mr. Nelson Becker and Mr. Ray Michel. The custodians must fire the furnace, cut grass, and be general handymen at almost any kind of job as they are called on to repair desks, light fixtures, windows, doors, and all kinds of school equipment. Shown changing a light bulb (one of the simpler and easier jobs) are Mr. Becker on ladder, and Mr. Michel holding a new bulb.

CLASS

In the year of 1952, we gathered as freshmen for the beginning of one of the main chapters of our lives. When we registered, the count showed us four short of a hundred.

Our first class meeting was held September 11, in the gym to elect our officers. They were: president, Jim Gibson; vice-president; Mike Decker; secretary-treasurer, Boots Prentice.

The main event of our freshman year was the initiation. Onions, soap, big buckets, toilet tissue, and lots and lots of lipstick were in evidence every place.

Following the initiation, we were given a party. The seniors gave us plenty of ice cream, cold pop, and apologies for all the mean things they had done to us during the day.

Under the supervision of our sponsors, Miss Wanning and Mr. Fields, we had our class party February 28. We danced, played games, and had delicious refreshments.

Another part of the chapter slipped by, and we found ourselves sophomores. This was 1953, and gone but not forgotten were: Billy Becker, Janice Collins, Susanna Davis, Joseph Eckstein, Ed Fullenkamp, Albert Hoegeman, Pat Huser, Jean Liskey, Vernon Moody, Rita Niese, Alvin Nobbe, Paul Prickel, Charles Root, Keith Stapley, Dixie and Barbara Vierling.

The one new student was Paul Dietz.

Our class officers that year were James Gibson, president; Arthur Tyler, treasurer; Janet Prentice, vice-president; and Deloris Thie, secretary.

This was the first year that girls from our class were eligible to become attendants to the Homecoming Queen. The ones chosen by the football team were Lorraine Deffner and Louella Scheele.

In the fall of '54, all of us except Allen Bohlke, Sharon Corbin, Mike Decker, Pauline Effing, Nick Fasbinder, Elvera Harpring, Jerry Heppner, Ralph Houston, Judy Miller, Cleo Narwold, David Oswald, Albert Suttman, Arthur Tyler, Sharon Wolferst, and Paul Dietz came back to B. H. S.

We gained one classmate, Joe Werner.

Yes, we were juniors then, and shortly after returning, two of our girls were again chosen as attendants of the Homecoming Queen. That year, Janet Prentice and Hazel Bauer were the fortunate ones.

HISTORY

In our junior year, Janet Prentice was president of our class; Louella Scheele, vice-president; Albert Grossman, treasurer; and Guy Ollier, secretary.

On December 3, 1954, we presented our junior play "Golden River," an event we and our audience shall never forget.

Our class was the first to hold an open prom, but everything went smoothly, and on that "twentieth day of May, 1955," instead of stepping into the gym, the juniors and seniors stepped into "outer space." Yes, just as our theme stated, we danced "Out of This World."

As seniors we returned to complete the final pages of our high school chapter.

This year we lost Ronald Borgman, Wilbur Dwenger, Edward Laws, Ronald Mollaun, Donna Parmer, Julian Schene, and Joe Werner.

We gained one student, Kay Hurley.

Those chosen to lead us during this final eventful year were: Janet Prentice, president; Jerry Robinson, vice-president; Albert Grossman, secretary; and Louella Scheele, treasurer.

Mr. Reeves and Mr. Frushour were our sponsors and helping hands.

The freshmen were welcomed to B. H. S. by initiation, a party in the gym, and again onions, soap, persimmons, and lipstick were the order of the day.

Some of the highlights of the year were, Homecoming, assembling the "BULLDOG", presenting our senior play, and attending the Junior-Senior Prom as guests of honor.

As the term drew to a close, we made plans for our class trip, Baccalaureate, and the climax of the four years--Graduation.

Standing on the threshold of life we look back on unforgettable memories, and the senior class wishes to take this opportunity to thank all those who have helped make these four years both pleasant and rewarding.

Civics: Mr. James Gibson (the sleeping beauty in the back row) takes his studies seriously, or so it appears.

Bookkeeping, Chemistry, and Civics. Three courses offered to seniors. Looks like the seniors are having fun (?) too. Seems like everybody is always down in the chemistry class. Wonder why? All the boys in bookkeeping seem to be having problems. They're all hard at it. Must be the end of the six weeks and they need that A. Mr. Brokamp appears to be releasing a few jewels of wisdom upon the ears of a senior civics class while showing a film strip.

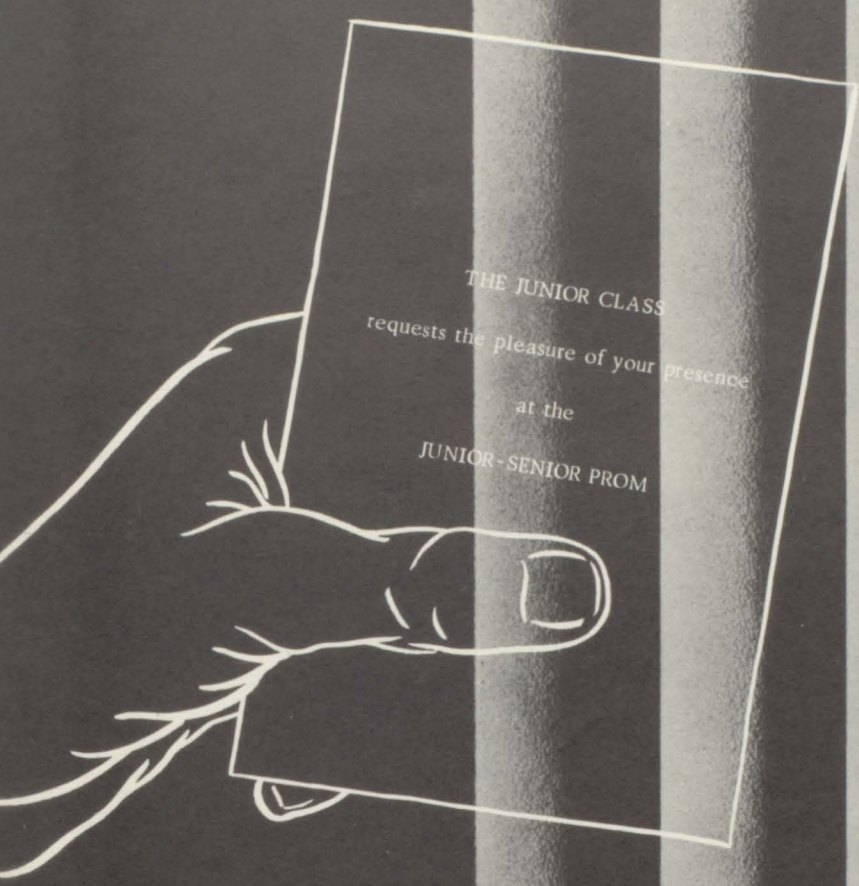

Bookkeeping:
Jerry Lamping seems to be having his troubles. Wonder why Hazel is laughing and Mr. Munchel is so serious????

Chemistry: Smitty seems to be taking a fiendish pleasure in what he's doing. Must be smelling up the school.

History: Oh! Oh! Look at that blackboard on the right! Brainwashing coming up!

Must be quite a problem of locating some point on the map in History; half the class is up there. So you think it's funny, eh, Gene? Those juniors are even more serious than sophomores. What's this school coming to anyhow? Frankly, I'm worried! Looks like a bright sunshiny fall morning. Could be just going to school in that sort of atmosphere prompted all the soberness. There is Miss Wonning with her favorite warm, friendly smile. Doesn't seem to be soaking in on Eddie Lehman though. He looks bored. Bob Bergman, you're casting a shadow on Ray Werner!

Typing: Did you ever straighten out that typing problem that's furrowing your brow, Dave?

English: John Hegwood (behind Edna Mae Zweige) seems interested, but you could get your head up so we could see you John.

Sophomores

Biology: All the sophomores seem very interested in Mr. Reeves' lecture on birds; except Marilyn Ertel. I guess she thinks that is for the birds.

Mr. Reeves can really hold the attention of his students. Couldn't be his good looks, so I wonder how he does it? Again the sophomores are very sober as they absorb a demonstration. Marilyn Ertel (her again?) seems more interested in the student giving the lecture. Someone must have given a funny answer in geometry from the looks of the sophomores in this picture. Could be they just want to show off their good looks. At any rate, they are having a good time.

Home Economics: Can't you just hear the "Ohs" and "Ahs" of admiration for that doll baby!

Snapshots

Health & Safety: Why couldn't all those cute girls look toward the camera? Maybe they are bashful!

Pictured are Freshman Health, Shop, and English classes. The freshmen all look so serious in these pictures one might think it was the day before initiation. Mr. Meyer must be taking his job seriously as he lectures the shop boys. Miss Wanning seems to enjoy her job as she discusses a language topic with her class. Miss Best appears a bit skeptical as she discovers how much her class has learned since yesterday's assignment.

English: Doggone, they got the camera behind the girls again! That cameraman has got to be replaced.

Homecoming

Maxine Tekulve, last year's Homecoming Queen, crowns Louella Scheele, this year's queen, as Miss Scheele's attendants look on.

Ken Werner, Bulldog captain, presents a bouquet of red roses to the new queen.

Ken kisses Louella while her attendants look on with approval.

The queen is surrounded by her court of two representatives from each of the three upper classes of high school. They are Boots Prentice and Ruth Theobald, Seniors; Dolores Ziegler and Ruth Moeller, Juniors; and Tania Decker and Mary Lou Sarringhaus, Sophomores.

Down You Go!!!

The Senior Three

Gary Robinson was injured playing football and missed most of the season. The last two years, however, his fine ball handling and sharpshooting won him a regular starting berth. Last year he was one of the leading scorers.

Jerry Rennekamp, a forward and guard, did an especially fine job this year and was one of the most improved players defensively. He will be in line for another letter this year, it will be his third letter in basketball.

Jack Lemasters, the 6' 3" center for this year's Bulldogs, received his third letter for playing on the Batesville five. Jack did a fine job of rebounding defensively this year and was one of the leaders offensively.
